SYRIAN PEACE MOVE STALEMATED

VICHY GOVERNMENT DECLARES BRITAIN REFUSED ARMISTICE

FIGHTING CONTINUES, MANY FLEE TO ANKARA, WEYGAND IN FRANCE

ANKARA, Turkey, July 10.—(AP)—French sources here said tonight Vichy troops evacuated Beirut last night and withdrew to the north under orders from General Henri Dentz, the Syrian high commissioner. It was believed Australian troops would occupy the city today.

VICHY, France, July 10.—(AP)—The French high command in Syria declared tonight Britain thus far has ignored its request for an armistice and "combats are therefore continuing with their accompaniment of violence and devastation...."

The communique added that "the responsibility for it does not rest with France."

A Vichy proposal of armistice to end the month-old Syrian war between Vichy forces and British Imperial troops and their DeGaullist comrades-in-arms ran into puzzling complications today as Vice Premier Admiral Jean Darlan returned from Paris conferences with German officials.

The war continued and a contradiction in Vichy statements cropped up.

Yesterday the authoritative Telemondial news agency announced Vichy was studying allied conditions for an armistice, requested by General Henri Dentz, French commissioner and commander-in-chief in Syria and Lebanon.

Today a French statement said: "No reply has yet been made by the British authorities to General Dentz, who, on the contrary, found himself faced with redoubled British attacks on all fronts and who learned with sorrow that pamphlets offensive to his dignity and

DETACHMENT OF STATE TROOPS TRYING KEEP ORDER; 13 WOUNDED

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 10.—(AP)—A detachment of at least 150 state troopers established patrols through the lower Anthracite region today and power shovel operators made tentative moves to resume coal stripping operations stopped yesterday by riotous miners.

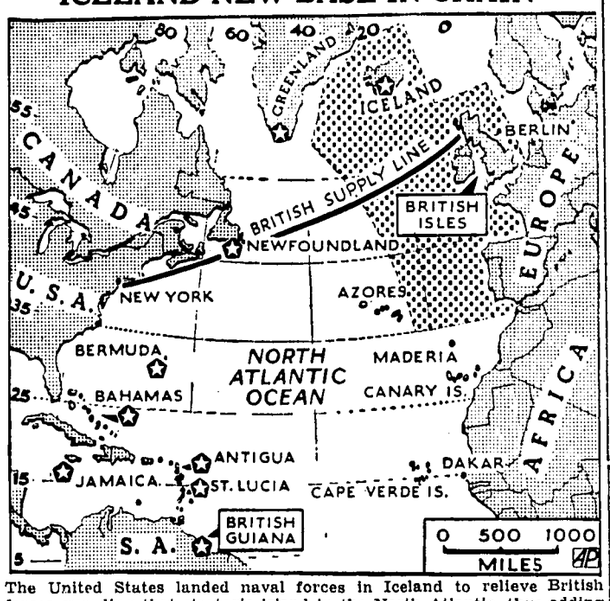

At the same time, county authorities started an investigation of three widely separated disturbances in which 13 men were wounded by buckshot and 20 others bruised and battered.

Two of the wounded men, admitted last night to the Ashland State hospital, were reported as in only a fair condition. Both were shot in the back.

The troopers, under command of Major Thomas Martin, arrived during the night and set up headquarters at the Pine Grove armory. Martin said "enough men" were sent, "with the approval of the governor" to maintain order.

ICELAND NEW BASE IN CHAIN

The United States landed naval forces in Iceland to relieve British forces guarding that strategic island in the North Atlantic, thus adding another base to the chain (stars) the U. S. has been establishing in the Atlantic since the outbreak of war in Europe. Iceland lies within an area (blocked area) which Germany has declared a war zone. With bases at Iceland, Greenland and Newfoundland, the U. S. now has its armed forces spread along the vital British supply route from North America.

Search Underway For Slayer Who Fled to Mexico

WESLACO, July 10.—(AP)—A search was underway today for a man who escaped police traps and fled into Mexico after the slaying of J. T. Ezekiel, 50, farm foreman.

Assistant District Attorney Jack Ross said Ezekiel, brother-in-law of Dr. E. T. McCalip, prominent Weslaco physician, was shot last Sunday afternoon while riding a hay rake at the McCalip farm.

The slayer, Ross added, fired two shots and fled on horseback. Two hours later the man encountered a posse of Weslaco officers, but abandoned his horse and disappeared into dense brush after two shots were fired at him, the district attorney declared.

Federal custom officers, immigration inspectors, Texas Rangers and state highway patrolmen joined county officers in the hunt.

REPATRIATION OF AMERICANS AT ONCE DEMANDED BY U. S.

STATE DEPARTMENT INDICATES OTHER NATIONALS MAY BE DETAINED

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—The United States has taken action to obtain immediate repatriation of Americans held prisoners by the nazis or detained in Germany, Italy and nazi-occupied Europe.

The state department, it was learned authoritatively today, has implicitly warned Germany and Italy that unless Americans held as "retaliation hostages" in nazi-Europe are freed and granted exit permits no German or Italian nationals will be permitted to leave this country.

The alien registration showed approximately 660,000 Italians and

FOUR AUTO PLANTS CLOSED BY DETROIT UPHOLSTERY STRIKE

MICHIGAN BOILER FACTORY SHUTDOWN, MORE LABOR TROUBLES NOTED

(By The Associated Press.)

A shutdown of four Chrysler automobile plants at Detroit was attributed today to a strike at an automobile upholstery factory in the same city.

Approximately 18,500 Chrysler workers were made idle by the walkout of CIO workers at the plant of National Automotive Fibers, Inc. Behind the strike was the union's demand for increased wages upon expiration of the present labor contract August 1.

The present wage scale was not disclosed, nor was the current rate inaw, Mich., where members of at the Wickes boiler plant at Saginaw the Steel Workers Organizing Committee struck, making undisclosed wage demands. The Wickes factory manufactures boilers for army camps.

Federal Conciliator James F. Dewey declared that unless the strike at the upholstery plant is settled quickly, other automotive factories would be affected.

The national defense mediation board called a meeting today to consider a strike at the Sealed Power Corporation, Muskegon, Mich., where AFL workmen walk-

REP. MARTIN DIES ASKS INVESTIGATION OF RECENT ELECTION

ASSERTS HUNDREDS THOUSANDS DOLLARS USED TO DEFEAT HIM

ORANGE, July 10.—(AP)—Rep. Martin Dies today urged an investigation of the recent Texas senatorial election into which he charged "CIO and fifth columnists organizations poured hundreds of thousands of dollars" to defeat him.

In a statement, the chairman of the house committee investigating unAmerican activities said he would open hearings Monday in Washington to receive evidence about subversive elements in America.

"Before long I expect to have the full facts," he declared.

Dies asserted a fearless investigation would disclose "flagrant violations of the Hatch act and the federal statutes limiting campaign expenditures to $25,000."

"Not less than $500,000 was spent in this campaign contrary to the intentions of the federal law," he continued. "Government employes throughout the state were written numerous letters and contacted by telephone and telegraph for the purpose of influencing their votes.

"As an example, a form letter sent to government employes informed them that they would not be violating the Hatch act by expressing their preference for a candidate."

Dies' Statement follows:

LEADERS IN HOUSE WORKING TO DEFEAT DRASTIC STATUTE

INDICATED ALSO EXTENDED SERVICE SELECTEES NOT SOUGHT AT PRESENT

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—By a vote of almost 2 to 1, the house defeated today a proposal that President Roosevelt be empowered to take over defense plants where the management refused to use federal conciliation and mediation services to settle a labor dispute.

An amendment by Rep. Healey (D-Mass) to eliminate that section from pending legislation was adopted on a standing vote of 170 to 91.

Action on his amendment came after the members had approved tentatively other sections providing for mandatory deferment from military training of men 28 or older on July 1 who had not been drafted.

The draft deferment provision was accepted without a formal vote and with little debate.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—Administration forces in the house worked quietly behind the scenes today in an effort to defeat drastic strike-control sections of a pending bill and instead bring about a vote on milder provisions already approved by the senate.

They passed along the word they favored senate sections to permit the government to take over any defense plant where a strike was impeding production, especially of either side in a labor dispute failed to use existing federal conciliation services.

Provisions in the pending house bill would empower the President to order production resumed

Gen. Lear Defends Punishment Group 'Yoo-Hoo' Troops

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 10.—(AP)—Stern-visaged Lieut. Gen. Ben Lear has replied to congressional criticism of the penance march he ordered for yoo-hooing troops with a declaration that as long as he remains Second Army Commander "soldierly standards of conduct will be demanded of all individuals in uniform."

Gen. Lear telegraphed Rep. Kilday (Dem.) of Texas, member of a special House subcommittee investigating personnel matters in the defense program, who yesterday wired Lear he contemplated a resolution to investigate "severe punishment" of some 350 soldiers for yelling at golfers as they passed through Memphis Sunday. The general said his action was "neither unjust nor severe."

Lear's response added the conduct of the group punished with a 150-mile march from Memphis to Camp Robinson, Ark., partly afoot, "was in marked contrast to the soldierly and gentlemanly behavior of the vast majority of men" in the recent Tennessee maneuvers.

Lear was also criticized in the House yesterday by Rep. Dirksen (Rep.) of Illinois, who commented on "grouchy, golfing old generals." Lear was on the golf course in mufti when the troops in the 35th Division shouted at shorts-clad girls and one called "hey, buddy, want a caddy?" at him.

Additional Army Appropriations To Be Requested

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt asked congress today for an appropriation of $4,770,065,588 for the war department "for the further strengthening of the national defense."

The new army appropriation will be mostly for laying in huge stocks of ordnance and ammunition, and also will provide for the purchase of considerable equipment of various types, it was said. The request was said to be for a straight cash appropriation in this instance.

The sources indicated that the cost of the $15,000,000,000 requests now planned by the President would be delayed for a short while. These include about $7,000,000,000 for lend-lease, a large amount for shipbuilding by the maritime commission, and a few hundred million for the navy.

The other requests were understood to be primarily for contract authorizations rather than cash appropriations, especially the lend-lease fund.

The original $7,000,000,000 lend-lease appropriation is largely committed already, but the actual cash is not scheduled for disbursement until at least the end o fthis fiscal year. The new authorization will be sought, officials explained, in order to make advance plans and contracts for the time when the first lend-lease appropriation actually is used up.

UNITED STATES IS READY TO SPONSOR WHEAT AGREEMENT

MEETING OPENED IN WASHINGTON SURPLUS-PRODUCERS, IMPORTERS

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—The United States was reported ready today to sponsor an international agreement as the most practical method for controlling production and marketing of the western hemisphere's wheat or other farm crops.

A proposal for such an agreement on wheat, it was said, has been prepared for submission to the conference of major wheat surplus countries which opened here today under auspices of the State Department.

Argentina, Australia, Canada and the United States were represented at the conference as the big surplus wheat producing countries, and the United Kingdom participated as a major importing country.

The United States, authoritative sources reported, had decided that an international agreement—similar to those which have been successful in tin, rubber and coffee—offered a more feasible approach to the surplus problem than the recently publicized Cartel plan. The agreement to be advocated by this country would provide "equitable" division of the available world export markets among surplus-producing countries, a production control program in each of the surplus countries atterned after the American AAA plan, and an "ever-normal granary" reserve supply in each country for use in event of crop failure.

The bulk of the world's present wheat surplus is in the western hemisphere, principally in Canada and the United States.

HELSINKI BOMBED; BITTER BATTLES

Helsinki, capital of Finland (1), underwent an intensive aerial bombing and Finnish guns hammered the Russian-leased naval base of Hango. The Russians claimed they had halted a thrust past Ostrov, toward Leningrad, and action in the central sector (2) was generally severe in the Polotsk area. Another center of battle was at Novograd Volynski (3). Claims on the Bessarabian area fighting conflicted but the Russians claimed a victory at Balti (4).

Corsicana Flying Cadet Safely Made Forced Landing

Flying Cadet Norman A. Gravelink who came to the Air Corps Training Detachment here from Lawton, Mich., is one step nearer membership in that select group of persons who have saved their lives by jumping out of a failing airplane in a parachute—the Caterpillar Club.

Cadet Gravelink did not have to "bail out" of his ship, but he brought it to a safe "dead stick" landing in the pasture of the R. E. Tatum farm about three miles southeast of Navarro without damage to the plane or injury to himself Wednesday afternoon when the motor failed. He was on a regular instruction flight, solo, when the motor went dead.

"The ship was vibrating so badly I knew I would have to land, so I just looked for a good spot and set her down," he said when asked how he felt when the motor cut out. "I'm sure glad we have good instruction on forced landings—it came in mighty handy," he grinned.

Capt. Oliver E. Ford, Jr., Commanding Officer of the flying school, commended Cadet Gravelink highly on his handling the ship in the emergency and on the cadet's good judgment.

Cadet Gravelink came to the Corsicana school April 30 and is one of the 36 members of class 41-I who will graduate from the school July 15 and proceed to Randolph Field for their basic training — the next step toward their "wings."

AMERICAN BOMBERS WILL HELP BRITISH BLASTS ON BERLIN

RAF MADE RAIDS ON SYRACUSE IN AFRICA AND ON CITY OF NAPLES

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—British bombing planes attacked the French coast today and blasted at enemy shipping, hitting six ships and leaving each a total loss, the air ministry announced tonight.

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—The increasing flow of American-made bombers soon will enable Britain to exact manifold retaliation on Berlin for the German bombardment of London, Britain's new minister of aircraft production, Lieut.-Col. J. T. C. Moore-Brabazon, declared today.

It will not be many months, he said, before Berlin hears the sirens of such attacks.

"Those famous Wednesday and Saturday nights (when London was heavily raided) will be child's play, compared with the raids we will be able to make on Berlin," he said.

FULL DIVISION OF MOTORIZED TROOPS REPORTED WIPED OUT

RED ARMY ALSO STATES HEAVY BLOWS DIRECTED AT SECOND UNIT

MOSCOW, July 10.—(AP)—The Red army, slashing in the direction of Lepel on the flank of Germany's Baltic salient, reported today it had wiped out a full division of Adolf Hitler's motorized troops—perhaps 15,000 men—and just south of Lepel smashed heavily at a second division.

The blow at the second division, though seemingly not as successful as those against the first, was called a serious defeat for the Germans. It took place near Borisov on the Berezina river and the road from Minsk to Moscow.

The eastward drive of the Reichswehr along the rest of the battlefront was reported stopped.

The Russians apparently were hitting hardest on the vital 50-mile Berezina river central front from Lepel to Borisov, guarding the road to Moscow.

"During battles in the Lepel direction our troops destroyed a German motorized division, up to 40 guns, and a large quantity of transport and specialized machines," a war bulletin reported.

It added:

"In the Borisov direction our troops inflicted a serious defeat on an enemy division."

Fierce battles were reported raging to the north and south of the Berezina front, with the Russians nowhere acknowledging

ANNIHILATION FULL NAZI DIVISION IS DEFENDERS' REPORT

NAZIS ASSERT NO LETUP IN HEAVY FIGHTING ALONG ENTIRE FRONT

(By The Associated Press.)

Annihilation of a German motorized division of some 15,000 men in the blocking of Nazi drives toward Moscow and Leningrad was reported by the Russians today, while the German high command again hid details of the titanic battle raging along a 2,000-mile front.

On the vital 300-mile central front, a Soviet war bulletin declared Red army troops were inflicting terrible losses on the invaders and holding fast.

The Berlin radio asserted nazi engineer shock troops had stormed and captured five heavy bunkers of the Stalin line "after bitter fighting," and claimed destruction of 110 Soviet warplanes.

Moreover, the radio said, German columns advancing against the Stalin defense system had destroyed 123 Russian panzer units "and put the rest to flight."

In the south, the Hungarian high command reported capture of 25,000 Soviet prisoners by German and Hungarian troops knifing into Galacia.

Meanwhile, Britain's minister of aircraft production, Lieut-Col. J. T. C. Boore-Brabazon, told the House of Commons the increasing flow of the American bombers would enable the RAF soon to bomb Berlin on a heavy scale.

The Germans, silent on any specific gains, declared the world's two largest armies were now fighting a decisive battle.

Reichsfeuhrer Adolf Hitler's field headquarters, issuing its third communique in succession on the 19-day-old war with Russia declared:

"Operations in the East are progressing relentlessly."

The nazi high command also confirmed the capture of Salla, fortified Russian town on the Finnish border, after a Red Army division was said to have been "crushed" in several days of fighting.

Meanwhile, the Middle East conflict flamed into action again amid

NAZI HIGH COMMAND SAYS RELENTLESSLY DRIVING ON SOVIETS

TWO BALTIC SPEARHEADS ON LEFT WING; AIR SUCCESSES REPORTED

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—The German high command, still brief in its reports on the war in Russia, declared today that "operations in the East are progressing relentlessly" and reported the capture of the Russian fortified town of Salla, on the Finnish frontier, after a Red army division had been crushed in several days of battle.

The left wing of the German army of the Baltic was reported to be driving two spearheads against the Russians—one directed at Tallinn, capital of Estonia, the other aimed at Leningrad, at the head of the Gulf of Finland.

Farther North, German forces operating from Finland appeared to be aiming a thrust at rail communications between Leningrad and Murmansk, vital railhead and ice-free port.

Interest in Berlin centered on these northern operations as no word was forthcoming about activities in the central sector, where

SUCCESSFUL NAZI DRIVE INTO NORTHERN RUSSIA VITAL BLOW; SYRIAN SITUATION IMPORTANT

By DeWITT MACKENZIE.

Hitler's forces in invasion Russia—ever probing the attenuated Stalin line in an effort to find a weak spot in that great barrier—have suddenly renewed their assaults against the northern front toward Leningrad and claim progress, although the Bolshevists assert they are holding.

Should the Nazis succeed in reaching this goal they would have achieved a victory of incalculable importance. They would have (1) virtually severed the Russian connection with the Baltic Sea; (2) secured a vital port and railhead for themselves on the Baltic, and (3) effected a turning movement against the northern end of the Stalin line somewhat similar to that which caused the fall of the famous Maginot line in France.

However, so far as the latest reports go, there would appear to have been little change in that swaying, bloody line, where millions of men are locked in struggle and scores of thousands are dying. Meanwhile we have a less spectacular, but still major development in Syria, where the French have asked the British for armistice terms which London expects to be accepted.

The allied requirements for cessation of the combined British and Free French drive into Syria presumably are such that if they are agreed to they will give Britain control of this strategic territory which Nazidom has tried to secure and would give much to possesses. This would represent a triumph for the allied cause.

This French mandate country is the pivot upon which turn vast political and military isues. The full force of the success may not register itself immediately, but it is likely to have a great influence on the outcome of the war. One imagines that the allies might have encountered heavy opposition from the Nazis, had the Russo-German war not intervened.

'SHOOTING ORDERS' IS MAIN QUESTION IN CAPITAL AFTER KNOX, WILLKIE STATEMENTS

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) told the senate today he had heard weeks ago "on reliable authority that the United States was constructing a naval air base for Great Britain in Northern Ireland."

"Since I made the first draft of this speech," Taft added in an address, "Mr. Wendell Willkie, after a call upon the President, announced that in his opinion we should establish military bases both in Northern Ireland and Scotland.

"The occupation of Ireland would relieve perhaps a half-million British troops for service elsewhere and put a half-million American boys into the British Islands.

"A base in Ireland would be much more effective to protect shipping than a base in Iceland. Every argument that has been used for the occupation of Iceland applies to Ireland and England and Portugal."

Taft contended that the landing of United States troops in Iceland was an act "exactly equivalent to aggressive war" and one which the President had no right to take without authority from congress."

Senator Connally (D-Tex) took immediate issue with Taft on Iceland, declaring the President was "perfectly justified" in ordering the occupation, and adding in a desk-pounding speech:

"I hope to God we don't have to fight (but) we must let the assassins and gangsters know that if we have to fight we will fight."

"I know of no constitutional limitation on the power of the President, as commander in chief of the army and navy, to send the army and the navy anywhere the defense of the United States requires," Connally said. "If the President wants to send the entire navy to European waters tomorrow, he's got that power."

Connally said the geographical consideration of whether Iceland

LOUISIANAN ASSERTS COASTAL AREA ALONE COULD SUPPLY ALL OIL NEEDED BY DEMOCRACIES

BATON ROUGE, La., July 10.—(AP)—Louisiana's director of minerals believes the gulf coast area of the United States alone could keep the democracies supplied with enough oil to outweigh any conceivable German conquests in Russia and the whole East, near and far.

Director Joseph L. McHugh is guardian of the underground resources of a state practically every acre of which has been declared by geologists actual or potential oil territory.

"Oil will win the war," he said, calling the invasion of the U.S.S.R. "A desperate gamble against a mathematical reality."

Louisiana, small in surface area, last year accounted for nearly 5 per cent of world production of oil, according to minerals department's figures, while its great neighbor Texas, produced 40 per cent. From other North American fields came 20 per cent more.

This production was under strict conservation and proration, McHugh pointed out, adding that it could be multiplied several times if an emergency forced exploration as reckless as the Germans have sanctioned in the fields they hold.

The proved portions of Louisiana's underground oil reserve were estimated by the department to equal a year's production of the whole United States.

Granting Hitler a complete victory in Russia and waiving the practical certainty that the Russians would damage their oil fields enough to make them useless to a conqueror, McHugh said that such success still would raise the Nazi oil stocks only to 15 per cent of the world's reserves.

Full control of Japan's production would add less than 3,000,000 barrels annually to Hitler's supply, McHugh continued, although active Japanese participation in the war conceivably could result in a conquest of the Netherlands East Ina jumble of confusion. A French spokesman in Vichy declared the British had not replied to France's request for an armistice in the month-old battle of Syria, except with increased military assaults and attacks on the military honor of General Henri Dentz, the French high commissioner of Syria and Lebanon.

British general headquarters in Cairo reported new gains in Syria but made no mention of armistice negotiations or a demand for the surrender of Beirut, the Lebanese capital.

In general terms, the Nazis reported the left wing of Germany's Baltic army was pounding two spearheads into Russian defenses —one directed at Tallinn, capital of Estonia; the other aimed at Leningrad, Russia's second biggest city, at the head of the Gulf of Finland.

Moscow war bulletins said the nazis had renewed hard pressure in three sectors where fighting has raged for a week—at Ostrov; Polotsk, in the northern tip of White Russia; and in the Novograd Volynski region of the Western Ukraine.

But the Russians acknowledged no withdrawals in the face of the onslaught.

On the central front, of which neither side had much to say, the Russians reported driving new counter attacks against the Germans in the headwaters of the Berezina, near Lepel.

German and Finnish reports claimed gains up to 35 miles into Soviet territory in pushes East toward the important rail line from Murmansk to Leningrad.

Britain, urged by Soviet spokesmen to strike at once in the west and catch the Germans on two fronts, was shaking herself free of pre-occupation in the Middle East, with firing slackening in Syria and Lebanon.

Gen. Henri Dentz, French commander of the Levant states, asked terms for an armistice there after a month of fighting between his forces and the British and Free French.

Dispatches from Ankara said two armed French ships, fleeing from Beirut to escape seizure, had been interned in Turkish waters.

In the British-German air war the luftwaffe and RAF were busy again overnight.

NEUCHATEL, Switzerland, July 10.—(AP)—The Neuchatel freight station on the Bern-Paris railway was demolished today by an explosion which killed two persons and shattered windows in buildings over a wide area.

The blast followed a fire which spread to explosives stored in the 300-foot depot.

The ferry service, thus far, has applied only to bombers capable of the trans-Atlantic flight.

"The great D-24 Liberator is already doing great service across the Atlantic and I want to see that service increased."

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—Flying through banks of fog, RAF bombers and fighters swept back across the English Channel again today and explosions soon were heard from the French coast.

Watchers on the southeast coast said visibility was poor and that machine gun fire was heard from above the channel.

The daylight raid followed overnight attacks by the RAF against Aachen and Osnabruck in Western Germany and the French coast.

Nazi airmen made scattered attacks on the British Isles during the night.

CAIRO, Egypt, July 10.—(AP)—Three Italian seaplanes were destroyed by fire, several others were damaged and "numerous" casualties were inflicted by machine gun fire in a daylight British air raid on the Sicilian port of Syracuse yesterday, theRAF Middle East communique reported today.

The assault on the Italian island just off the toe of the Italian homeland was mentioned among widespread assaults on North Africa and Syria.

ROME July 10.—(AP)—Renewal of British air attacks on Italy proper after a lapse of many weeks was reported today by the Italian high command—a low-level daylight thrust at Syracuse and a blow by night at Naples which resulted in fourteen civilians killed and thirty injured.

(Whether these were to be isolated operations or the opening of a sustained offensive similar to the RAF operation against Germany, now more than a month old, remained to be seen. So far as the Italian communique indicated, the two places were attacked without challenge from the Italian air force.)

Claim 38 Nazi Planes.

MOSCOW, July 10.—(AP)—A terrific air battle in which the Russians claimed to have shot down 38 Nazi planes while losing five of their own was described today in a communique which said "the fight ended in complete rout of the enemy."

The battle, the communique said, took place Tuesday night when German Junkers 88's, escorted by Messrschmitts, took off to prepare the offensive of their units in an unspecified sector of the front. The Russians met them in the air "and hurled themselves at the German planes at a high altitude."

Oumansky to White House.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—For the first time since Russia became embroiled in Europe's war, Soviet Ambassador Constantine Oumansky had an appointment today with President Roosevelt, presumably to discuss American aid.

The ambassador has been consulting frequently with the state department and has said that the conferences were down to "constructive and practical matters."

It was at his own request that the conference with the Chief Executive was scheduled, and the acting secretary of state, Sumner Welles, was his companion at the White House.

Details have been withheld on the specific items which Russia would like to get from the United States to help in the battle against the Nazi forces.

BERLIN

bitter fighting was reported in the drive toward Moscow by way of Minsk and Smolensk.

The high command confined itself yesterday to the statement that the fighting was continuing on the entire eastern front, and the reported capture of Salla was not mentioned officially. The news agency, DNB, announced fall of Vilpandi and Parnu in Estonia as well as Ostrov on the Latvian Russian border.

The authoritative commentary, Dienst Aus Deutschland, speaking of the Arctic drive, said the German troops had broken through the Titowka Heights fortifications after considerable difficulties since the terrain prevented the use of artillery.

DNB said the nazi luftwaffe was doing heavily destructive work in the drive on Tallinn and north from Ostrov, and declared dive bombers had destroyed bridges necessary for a Soviet retreat.

RAF Offensive Costly.

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—The British aerial offensive against Germany and German-occupied territory yesterday, last night and today cost the RAF 44 planes, according to a compilation late today of German reports.

German sources said 19 RAF planes were shot down in daylight combat today in the Calais, Cherbourg and Boulogne areas of the channel coast, against loss of two German planes.

The German high command's tabulation for yesterday and last night totaled 35 planes.

In German aerial thrusts across the channel, the war bulletin reported, five British merchantmen in a guarded convoy north of Newquay, at the mouth of the Bristol channel on the English coast, were sunk in a night air attack.

African Raids Reported.

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—Strong bomber forces of the luftwaffe stabbed into Britain's Suez Canal defense zone during the night, the German high command reported today, and set fire to hangars west of Ismailia.

The communique also said a British destroyer, off Salum, in the Egyptian-Libyan frontier zone, received bomb hits.

Informed quarters said the warship was seriously damaged.

A tank thrust by British imperial forces besieged for three months at Tobruk, within Libya, was said by the Germans to have collapsed two days ago under heavy fire from axis siege guns with heavy losses.

Bombings Admitted.

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—Several places in Western Germany were bombed by British planes during the night, but damage was confined principally to residential districts, informed sources said today. A number of civilian casualties were caused and three raiders were shot down, the German report said.

Hungarians Claim Prisoners.

BUDAPEST, July 10.—(AP)—The Hungarian high command assepted today 25,000 prisoners had been taken in the advance into Galacia, southwestern Russia, in which "Hungarian troops fought at the side of German troops."

Claim Planes Destroyed.

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—The German radio broadcast a high command slaim today that 110 Russian warplanes were destroyed on the eastern front yesterday and five heavy bunkers of the Stalin line "were taken after bitter fighting."

Finns Report Successes.

HELSINKI, July 10.—(AP)—Slight Red army resistance to German-Finnish land thrusts and destruction of 14 Russian planes and an observation balloon yesterday and this morning by Finnish fighters were reported by the Finnish high command.

More than four score Russian planes are said to have been downed by the Finns since the fighting began.

Say Destroyer Damaged

BERLIN, July 10—(AP)—German bombers were reported today have seriously damaged a British destroyed in an attack yesterday off the Egyptian coast.

NATIONAL OFFICIAL LEGION AUXILIARY HERE MONDAY NIGHT

MRS. GEORGE C. BURTON, NATIONAL VICE PRESIDENT, PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Asserting the American Legion Auxiliary is the largest women's patriotic organization in the world, Mrs. George C. Burton, national vice president of the Southern division of the national organization, told a joint assembly of the Corsicana Legion and Auxiliary units here Monday night their first responsibility in service is to the hospitalized ex-service men.

Corsicana was selected as one of several units throughout the state to her the southern vice-president on her annual official visit to Texas.

A highly entertaining musical program was presented, preceding the address. Two piano solos, "Don't Give Up the Ship" by Hilda Dilliard and "Anchors Aweigh" by Billie Hendon featured the first part of the program. Frenchie Huff, accomplished cornet soloist, played "The Marine Hymn." He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Lida Lynn Wood.

Vocal Selections.

Miss Julia Taggart of Washington, D. C., was presented next in a group of patriotic vocal selections. She sang "Without a Song," "My Buddy," and "God Bless America." Miss Lida Lynn Wood accompanied her at the piano.

Miss Marguerite Garitty, president of the local auxiliary, presided and introduced Mrs. Floyd Graves of Kerens, sixth district chairman, who presented Mrs. M. H. Ehlert of Brenham, state auxiliary president.

Mrs. Ehlert, speaking on auxiliary enrollment in Texas, pointed out that in the past year the Texas department has moved from thirty-eighth place to second place in the number enrolled in the national organization. Texas has over 10,000 members at present and plans are under way to enroll nearly 10,000 more during the coming year, she said. Mrs. Ehlert introduced the national vice-president.

History of Organization.

Mrs. Burton reviewed briefly the inception and organization of the Legion Auxiliary. At the outset the membership totaled 113,000 women. Today the half million mark has been past, she said.

Referring to the present national emergency, the national vice-president urged the Legionnaires and Auxiliary not to forget their obligation to the men who served in the first great struggle.

Every phase of the Legion Auxiliary program has been outstanding this year, she said. Outside of the church, Mrs. Burton continued, the American Legion is the greatest service organization in the world.

Discipline Troops

Lt. Gen. Ben Lear (above) ordered 350 men of the 35th Division to March 15 miles as discipline for their yelling and whistling at shorts-clad girl golfers and others on a links at Memphis during the soldiers' return from maneuvers to Camp Robinson, Little Rock. One of the golfers was Gen. Lear. One soldier who did not recognize the general shouted: "Hey, Buddy, don't you want a caddy?"

MOTHER CORSICANA WOMAN WAS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Funeral services for Mrs. E. A. Sikes of El Campo, who was killed instantly in an automobile accident two miles from East Bernard near Houston Sunday morning, were held Tuesday afternoon from Riddle Funeral Home, Mexia, with burial in the Mexia cemetery. Other occupants of the automobile, Mrs. Merle Hodge and children of Corsicana and Miss Edith Marie Sikes of El Campo, were seriously injured.

The wheels on the car were said to have locked and the car ran into a ditch.

Mrs. Eikes is survived by her husband, E. A. Sikes of El Campo; two sons, Jesse and Clarence, of Richmond; three daughters, Miss Edith Marie Sikes of El Campo, Mrs. Merle Hodge of Corsicana and Mrs. R. B. Gathright of Fort Worth; three brothers, Frank Wilson of Corsicana, Robert Wilson of Kilgore, and Fred Wilson of Long Island, N. Y., and six grandchildren.

NEW MILK STATION BE IN OPERATION CORSICANA AUG. 1

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE TO BOARD DIRECTORS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

E. E. Waters, superintendent of the Borden Company plant, Waco, and G. H. O'Brien, engineer, were in Corsicana today to begin the installation of equipment to outfit a $20,000 sweet milk receiving, cooling, and testing plant in the filling station building across Post Oak Creek on north Beaton Street.

Mr. Waters reported to directors of the Chamber of Commerce and other interested persons this morning that his company bought $3,300 worth of milk in Corsicana alone in June, and estimated that the annual purchases from Navarro County would be in excess of $50,000. He said present plans call for the operation of a small plant in Corsicana to handle milk production but that the company will enlarge the plant and equipment if necessary to take care of any increases in production.

Mr. Waters pointed out that the government's demand for evaporated milk has grown large under the present emergency and that the Borden Company and other similar companies are being taxed to capacity to supply the demand. He pointed out that the war in Europe has destroyed the dairying industry there and the United States is having to furnish milk now and that during the reconstruction period after the war the United States will be called upon to rehabilitate the European dairy herds.

The Corsicana plant will be in operation by Aug. 1, Mr. Waters said.

Joe E. Butler, president of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce, presided at Wednesday's meeting. Jack Burk and Bill Balcom, members of the Junior High 4-H Club gave a demonstration of their calf-feeding work, and Scotty Miller, member of the Emhouse 4-H Club explained results gotten from feeding a calf with sweetpotato meal.

Between thirty-five and forty directors, members of the dairy committee, vocational teachers, and representatives from other Navarro County towns attended the enthusiatsic meeting.

Set Surface Casing.

Surface casing has been set on the Whistler and Westbrook test on the Coleman lease, according to information here. The well is located on the H. Howard survey, two miles southwest of Streetman. Drilling will be resumed at an early date.

MOB LAW IN ANCIENT CITY HAS ITS MODERN PARALLELS*

Labor Unions Stirred Up Riot Against Christian Preacher Who Was Bad for Business—Dramatic Scene in Old Ephesus — A Traveller's Memories.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

Most persons have never seen a real riot; but nobody who has watched the progress of one will ever forget it. As a newspaper man, I have vivid memories of riots in Philadelphia's Kensington, in Montreal, in Egypt and in China. One of the most thrilling reports of a great riot is the core of the present Sunday School Lesson.

Outwardly, this tumult in old Ephesus was an affair of religion, always the most serious form of public outburst, as illustrated by the frequent Moslem-Hindu riots reported from India. Actually, it was a carefully planned and staged labor union demonstration. First of all, let us get the background.

Religion Makes A Stir.

After his second adventurous missionary journey, which carried him into Europe, Paul returned to Jerusalem, having resisted entreaties to abide in Ephesus. When he had reported to the Mother Church, he again set out to traverse his old route. This time, when he reached the great and thriving city of Ephesus, in what is now Turkey, he decided to remain there for a time. For three months he followed his usual procedure of speaking in the synagogue; there naturally being a large community of Jews in this notable commercial center.

When opposition got too great, he opened up daily meetings in the school of Tyrannus, where persons of all races and religions and classes could hear him. This continued for two years; a sort of protracted Billy Sunday campaign. Luke's record runs, "So that all they that dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks."

Evidently, Paul's was "sensational" preaching. It reached the big crowd, and made common talk. Also it was accompanied by miracles of healing. Spectacular conversions were so numerous that converts who had practiced magical arts brought their books into the public square and made a bonfire of them, at a sacrifice of fifty thousand pieces of silver. Paul's Gospel was dramatically changing lives, and affecting the thought of the entire region. Ominous to evil was this fundamental alteration in public thinking. Outward results of inward change were everywhere manifest. Old Ephesus was witnessing a city-wide awakening of religious consciousness.

Setting The Mob A-Roar.

Real religion is never good for bad business. One of the thriving trades of Ephesus was the manufacture of silver images of the famous goddess, Diana, whose temple was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. A master silversmith, named Demetrius, watched with concern the decline of his business, as the effects of Paul's preaching steadily spread.

So he called together the whole labor union, or guild, of silversmiths, together with their affiliated workers. Some were skilled craftsmen; some were husky laborers, who marketed their brawn. With a demagogue's skill, Demetrius incited the selfish passions of the crowd he had collected. Their very livelihood was in danger, he warned. And, seeking a good reason for a bad action, he stressed the growing irreverence toward Diana, the goddess. He cloaked a sordid concern for profits beneath a seeming solicitude for the old religion.

How Riots Rise.

There was plenty of tinder for the spark of Demetrius. There always is material for the demagogue to work upon—simple-minded persons whose emotions are more powerful than their intelligence. That prodigous scholar who recently died, Sir James Fraser, author of "The Golden Bough," pointed out ominously, "the permanent existence of a solid layer of savagery beneath the surface of society... We move on a thin crust which may at any moment be rent by the subterranean forces slumbering below," Milton had the same idea:

"There is a poor, blind Samson in this land,
Shorn of his strength, and bound with bands of steel,
Who may, in some grim revel, raise his hand,
And shake the pillars of the commonweal."

That Ephesus riot, which ensued upon the cunning speech of a skillful agitator, was akin to most riots since. Soon the mob of silver workers, increased by the city's irresponsible riff-raff, was fathered in the great theatre (which is still standing, in a remarkable state of preservation), and clamoring for the blood of the Christian missionaries. For two solid hours they rent the air with throaty cries of, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians"—though what they really meant was, "We want jobs and money." How parallel to modern instances was this noisy solicitude, for a temple, cloaking concern for trade.

A Man Who Kept His Head.

Paul's friends restrained him from fronting the mob, as his heroic heart bade him do. His coworker, Alexander, tried to reason with the crowd, but he was drowned out by the babel of noise. As Luke records, "The more part knew not wherefore they were come together." Mob-madness, which overturns reason and a sense of responsibility from their thrones, had possession of that screaming multitude.

Then appeared one man who had kept his head, the town clerk of Ephesus. Thank God, there are usually such in every community. And it should be a present concern of every good citizen, in these critical times, to prepare himself to stand steady when his community is rocking. This town clerk was not thinking of votes, or of his own safety; but of the real honor of Ephesus and of the sanctity of law. So he spoke fearless and forth-right words of warning to the multitude, quieting and sobering them. He pointed a finger of indictment at Demetrius and the silversmiths. His words finally dispersed the crowd.

Even by this ominous incident, news of which quickly spread throughout Asia, public interest in the new faith was quickened. Persecution promotes publicity; that is why Pastor Niemoeller, in a German concentration camp, is the most potent force for vital Christianity in Germany today. The Gospel was going and growing; so Paul was content. What was one riot, more or less?

And today there is no trace of Diana in Ephesus; but outstanding ruins of historic Christian churches. When I last visited Ephesus I made a special search for the site of the Temple of Diana; and found it only because a smyrna friend remembered where excavations had been conducted on its site, many years ago. Demetrius and his mob, and even the town clerk, though that the worship of Diana was one of the surely established things of earth. Yet today, in all the wide world, there is not a single mortal who pays homage to the many-breasted goddess. But, "Our God is marching on."

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS.

Great trials seem to be necessary preparations for great duties.—Thomson.

Never esteem anything as of advantage to thee that shall make thee break thy word or lose thy self-respect.—Marcus Aurelius.

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold;
New-made friends, like new-made wine,
Age will mellow and refine;
Friendships that have stood the test
Of time and change are surely best.
—Henry van Dyke.

Too low they build who build beneath the stars.—Young.

The Lord is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.—Psalm 145:8.

Look up and not down;
Look forward and not back;
Look out and not in;
And lend a hand.
—Edward Everett Hale.

Do the best you can where you are, and when that is accomplished, God will open a door to a higher sphere.—Beecher.

RAISING MORE FOOD ON TEXAS FARMS IS PROBLEM FOR FSA

COLLEGE STATION, July 9.—(AP)—Farm security administration workers from all parts of Texas studied methods of helping small farmers and ranchers to raise more food on their land yesterday as their seventh annual state meeting at Texas A. and M. College.

"Egg production can be stepped up greatly without increasing the size or number of flocks," said L. A. Machemehl, district FSA supervisor from Lufkin. "Proper feeding is one way to get more eggs per hen, and control of disease and parasites is another."

FSA officials said that these two farming practices would increase the production of eggs for defense purposes without having to wait on growth of more hens.

J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist, led the discussion on developing orchards on tenant farms.

"Home orchards are particularly hard to establish on many tenant-operated farms," said Roger Davis, FSA farm management specialist, "because the tenant does not know from one year to the next whether he will be on the same farm."

Davis advocated long-term leases so that tenants he will be encouraged to plant and keep home orchards.

Lieut. Col. Homer E. Carrico, San Antonio, outlined the place of farm organizations in the U. S. department of agriculture's "food for defense" program.

Cemetery Circles Meeting Tuesday

Oak Valley and White's Chapel Circle of the Hamilton-Beeman Cemetery Association met at the home of Mrs. W. N. Hamilton Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. F. P. McCulston as co-hostess.

Ten members and 13 visitors attended. During the business session plans were made for the ice cream supper to be held on Thursday night, July 31, at Oak Valley. Material for pillow cases was distributed. A dessert course was served during the social hour.

CORSICANA, TEX., JULY 11, 1941

ALUMINUM CONSERVATION.

The national aluminum round-up which started on the first of July arouses mixed emotions. Many Americans remember with what amusement, if not scorn, they read of similar collections of important metals in Germany, Italy, Spain and elsewhere in days past. When gold was needed even wedding rings were tossed into the pile. When iron was needed handsome wrought-iron fences and ornamental grille work had to go.

Now it is the rich United States of America that asks its private citizens for aluminum. They are not asked to sacrifice, however. Civilian Defense Director La Guardia tells housewives not to give anything still in use. "This would be waste," he explains, "and we are interested in conservation. But go through the cellar and see what you can find." Old pots, pans, vacuum cleaners, ice trays, or anything else now discarded which contains aluminum may thus be turned from idleness to service.

The key to this collection in America is in that word "conservation." And it might set all of us to looking about for other articles that, in the present state, represent waste of material or space. If there are such in home, office, store, or factory they should be moved along promptly to a space where they may fill a real need.

FRANCE LOOKS BACK.

The French people today haven't many rights and recreations left. There is an almost complete lack of magazines and newspapers. In this situation what is a highly literate and intelligent nation going to do?

What they are doing, according to a report from Paris, is reading Montaigne's Essays. That is one of their old "classics," a volume published in the year 1588, and comparable to Lord Bacon's Essays which were published early in the next century. They are, however, more interesting to most readers than Bacon's, because they are less heavy and more human, touching lightly and without bias on the foibles of human nature and his own personal likes and dislikes, and not meddling with politics.

It is well that the French, in their tragic situation, have something like that to fall back on. And while we Americans may read anything we like, and have plenty of interesting contemporary literature at hand, there is an odd satisfaction in going back occasionally to the old writers and founders of modern literature. It restores, for a little while, a vanished world.

TEXTBOOK PROBLEM

School boards here and there this summer are weighing proposals to ban textbooks by Harold Rugg from their public school systems. Because there may be as much peril to democracy in placing an arbitrary ban on any book as there is in the book itself, such boards should not act hastily or in emotional response to statements quoted out of their context.

It is warm weather for hard brain work, but school board members about to decide on textbooks for the boys and girls of their communities should take the time and make the effort to know for themselves what is in the books, before either ordering them or banning them.

They should answer certain questions carefully. What is a textbook for? How is it to be used? Is its material honest, accurate and unbiased? Is it well organized and clearly presented for the best information and enlightenment of young minds? What do competent teachers think of it?

Wise choice and intelligent use of textbooks in the schools should be the aim of those responsible for public education.

SHOESTRING EMPIRE.

The "Chinese Incident," as the Japanese quaintly call their war in China, has now cost Japan about $4,000,000,000. And that sum, according to a Chinese authority, is equal to the entire Japanese national income for the year 1936. Presumably it is about a normal year's income.

The fact throws a bright light on Japan's real standing as a world power. Japan's $4,000,000,000 a year is about one-twentieth of our own national income in an average year. On that, Japan has to feed and clothe her people and support her army and navy.

When you look at the economic facts, quite aside from considerations of character and morale, it seems clear enough why Japan has failed to conquer China. Economically she hasn't what it takes.

By the same token it is clearer than ever that the United States has no reason to fear Japan, that is, if we solve our Japanese problem conclusively before the Tokyo militarists, by some bold or lucky stroke, manage to grab the wealth and resources of the Indies. With the Dutch Indies they might become dangerous. Modern war power is based largely on raw materials.

JAPAN IN THE SOUP

If the matter were not so serious, Americans could get a good laugh out of the present plight of Japan. It is a result of misjudgment in her predatory friendships. Having just entered into treaties of mutual support with her Axis brethren, Germany and Russia, she is suddenly stunned by finding the Axis is broken and her dear friend Germany is making war on her dear friend Russia. It is surely an evil world where loving friends can fall out in this fashion.

And what is puzzled Japan to do now? She will take a little time, no doubt, to get her bearings. And if Tokyo statesmen ever again trust the Nazis, or any of Europe's wicked supermen, they are incurably credulous.

We feel like giving a gentle suggestion to the Japanese government, which will probably be ignored. It is simply this: Since every other attempt to get along in the world seems to fail, why not turn honest and try to rebuild ruined Japan by the normal, decent processes of peaceful development? Nothing else works, anyway, in the long run.

There's nothing like going swimming, this time of year, to get the kinks out of a fellow's soul.

JUST FOLKS

GRANDPA'S OUT SHOPPING

We met a window where toys were displayed
And I knew right away from his hair which had grayed
And the way that he lingered the trinkets to see,
That he was a grandpa and stranger like me.

As we postled each other, I smiled when he told:
"I'm looking for something a suitcase will hold!"
Said I, "Like yourself, I am out on a trip
And am looking for playthings to pack in a grip."

He took from his pocket a picture and said:
"Did you ever see such a wonderful head?"
I reached for my wallet and took from inside
A handful of snapshots of grandfather pride.

Two traveling Grandpops—old fools if you will—
Out shopping for trinkets their cases to fill;
Both seeking some pleasure to hide in a grip
For children to find at the end of the trip.

AT LONG LAST!

RURAL PEOPLE ARE ASKED CONTRIBUTE ALUMINUM ARTICLES

COLLEGE STATION, July 8.—(Special).—An appeal to rural people to contribute aluminum, in a drive announced recently by the Office of Civilian Defense, has been made by Director H. H. Williamson of the Texas extension service. Governor W. Lee O'Daniel has called upon county judges to assume leadership of the campaign.

County extension agents have been asked to assist with this work as it relates to rural areas. Gathering of aluminum is to begin during the week of July 21, and according to the plan, local committee of 4-H Club members, home demonstration clubs, land use planning committees and other groups will call on farm homes in the community to collect the aluminum scrap.

Anything which is made of aluminum will do. Among the items suggested for donation are pots and pans, radio parts, toys, shakers, screening, old washing machine parts, picture frames, book ends, ice trays, measuring cups, camera equipment, kettles and double boilers, bottle and jar caps, refrigerator plates and electric appliances of all sorts.

Earlier the Office of Production Management had asked the citizens to defer collecting scrap aluminum until the week of July 14 and warned against "sharpsters" posing as legitimate government purchasers buying up scrap. It is estimated that the campaign to collect secondary aluminum will result in obtaining twenty million pounds throughout the nation. This would result in the release of twenty million pounds of first-class metal for use in 2,000 fighter planes.

The metal collected will be sold to smelters at a special uniform price fixed by the government. Entire net proceeds will be available to the Office of Civilian Defense for expenditures required in the proper defense of the civilian population.

Fourteen Students To Receive Diplomas End Summer School

At informal graduation exercises of the Corsicana high school, diplomas will be presented 14 students at the close of summer school, July 2,, it was announced today by Principal R. A. Armistead.

W. H. Norwood, superintendent of schools, will make a brief address along with the presentation of the diplomas and final report cards. Seventy-six students are enrolled in the summer classes.

The 14 graduates include:

Girls—Dorothy Butler, Pauline Kennemore and Joyce Maurine Summerall.

Boys—George Alton Davis, Walter Farmer, Ishmael Lee Granger, Richard Hudnel Harwell, Elisha Willard Hobbs, Carlton Jones, Alvin Oneal Long, Thomas Jefferson Seay, Jr., A. T. Smith, Jr., Herman H. Stark, and Roy Badie Stewart.

Change of Residence.

KERENS, July 9.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Ama Carpenter and family have this week moved from the R. S. Daniel property near the business section, to the brick home formerly owned by C. J. Hall, located in South East Kerens.

Less Cotton Now In Cultivation Than A Year Ago

WASHINGTON, July 8.—(AP)—This year's cotton crop may be one of the smallest in twenty years, production authorities said today in commenting on an agriculture department report that the 1941 harvest acreage might be the smallest since 1895.

Some yields average as high as the 252.5 pounds an acre produced last year, production would be about 11,666,000 bales, the smallest since 1935. Should yields equal the 1929-38 ten-year average of 198.1 pounds an acre, the crop would be about 9,153,000 bales, or the smallest since 1921.

Cotton in cultivation in the United States on July 1 was estimated today by the department of agriculture to be 23,519,000 acres. That is 5.4 per cent less than in cultivation a year ago, and 28.6 per cent less than the 10-year (1930-39) average area in cultivation on July 1.

Should abandonment from natural causes this year equal the 10-year average abandonment, which was 1.9 per cent, an acreage of 23,102,000 would be indicated for harvest, the department said.

Cotton in cultivation a year ago was 24,871,444 acres, of which 23,861,000 acres were picked, yielding 252.5 pounds of lint cotton to the acre and a total production of 12,566,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight. Two years ago cotton in cultivation totaled 24,683,000 acres of which 23,805,000 acres were picked, yielding 237.9 pounds to the acre and a total production of 11,817,000 bales.

A forecast by the agriculture department of cotton production for this year is prohibited by law until after the August canvass.

The acreage in cultivation July 1, is percentage of the 1940 July 1 acreage and the 10-year (1931-40) average percentage of abandonment from natural causes, by states, follow:

Oklahoma 1,710,000; 90 and 3.9; Texas 8,352,000; 94 and 2.5; New Mexico 122,000; 111 and 2.7.

Marketing Groups Several Counties

COLLEGE STATION, July 8.—(Spl.)—Farm families in 26 Texas counties have organized egg marketing associations or are in the process of organizing them, according to Myrtle Murray, specialist in home industries for the A. and M. College extension service. In 1940 there were less than half a dozen associations.

Members of these marketing groups produce quality eggs by proper feeding, and weed out small eggs as well as extremely large ones. The clean, fresh, uniform infertile eggs they sell are stamped with the name of the producer and the name of the association as a guarantee to persons who buy them.

Some associations pack eggs in cartons and enclose folders of recipes and hints on the use of eggs as well as on the value of eggs in the diet.

Counties where the associations have been set up are Gray, Collingsworth, Hansford, Hutchinson, Sherman, Deaf Smith, Lynn, Floyd, Haskell, Baylor, Wilbarger, Johnson, Parker, Navarro, Hill, Red River, Lamar, Gregg, Taylor, Nacogdoches, Uvalde, Harris, Cameron, Maverick and Schleicher.

RESIDENT OF RICE WAS BURIED TUESDAY IN RICE CEMETERY

Funeral services for Lewis Gregory, 47, Rice farmer, who died suddenly at his home in Rice early Monday morning, were held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Haynie Memorial Methodist Church with burial in the Rice cemetery. The rites were conducted by Rev. D. R. McCauley, pastor of the church, with the Masonic Lodge in charge of the grave.

Surviving are his wife of Rice; four children, Mrs. Arlie Knott, Dallas, Mason, Bettie Sue and Ruth Gregory, all of Rice; mother, Mrs. N. S. Gregory, Rice, and seven sisters, Miss Verna Gregory, postmistress, Rice, Mrs. W. C. Mahaley, Rice; Mrs. Lee Ellison, Oklahoma; Mrs. Charles McLaurin, Lubbock; Mrs. J. T. Lee, Rice; Mrs. B. F. Bell, Rice, and Mrs. Bell, Dallas, and other relatives.

Sutherland-McCammon Funeral Home directed the rites.

County Judge Speaker.

E. D. McCormick, county judge, was the principal sepaker at the annual memorial meeting of the Grape Creek Cemetery Association Sunday. A large crowd was present. A picnic dinner was served at the noon hour.

HIGHWAY ENGINEER DISCUSSES ROADS, NATIONAL DEFENSE

TWO NAVARRO COUNTY ROADS LISTED; FLIGHT STRIPS PROVIDED

Plans of the Navy and War departments in connection with strategic military highways in Texas were discussed by Tom E. Huffman of Dallas, district engineer of the Texas highway department, at the weekly luncheon program of the Corsicana Lions Club Tuesday noon at the Navarro Hotel.

Mr. Huffman pointed out that the necessity for a nation-wide network of military highways was realized shortly after the first World War and plans were outlined for the construction of these roadways. Little was actually done, however, and the matter was dropped until the present national emergency arose, he said.

Since that time, military experts have revived the original plan, which was called the Pershing system after General Pershing, and funds are now being approved for actual construction. About 7000 miles of these strategic military highways are located in Texas, he said.

Highway 75 which passed through Corsicana is listed as second priority as well as highway 31 that connects Corsicana with Waco. However, Mr. Huffman asserted that the priorities are subject to immediate revision and expressed the opinion that the priorities would eventually be eliminated.

A unique innovation in the requirements of military constructions are numerous "flight strips" to parallel the highways, he said. These so-called flight strips are a direct result of the European war and will be used by airplanes of the expanding army air corps for military purposes, he said.

R. A. Caldwell and Joe York were appointed by President Harvey as program committee for the next meeting.

THE CORSICANA DAILY SUN DAILY PATTERN

Shirtwaister Has New Skirt

PATTERN 4801

by Anne Adams

You may admire daring fashions on other women, but you want to feel at home in your own clothes. Pattern 4801 is an Anne Adams Shirtwaister that shows plenty of new fashion interest, yet has all the familiar shirtfrock characteristics. A smooth hip-yoke forms two points in front and gives you a slender, long-waisted look. The top yokes in-one with the back bodice section, keep your shoulders trim and have darts below to hold the bodice softness under control. There are gathers above waistline, too. You may match or contrast the notched collar. One smart panel goes down the front skirt; the back is perfectly plain. Both short and long sleeve versions are included in this style.

Pattern 4801 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 takes 4½ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send Fifteen Cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plain Size, Name, Address and Style Number.

in a struck defense plant, to protect workers willing to return to their jobs, and would forbid attempts by force and violence to prevent such employes "accepting or continuing" their employment.

The controversy over this labor question all but overshadowed a little-debated section of the dual-purpose bill which would provide for the mandatory deferment from military training of men 8 or older on July 1. The senate bill would make such deferment discretionary with the President.

All factions agreed that the mandatory deferment section would be approved almost without objection by the house, but opponents of the labor provisions complained that the two issues should not be combined in a single bill.

No Change Expected.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—The Selective Service ban against use of trainees outside the Western hemisphere appeared likely to day to remain unchanged for the present, despite the recommendation of the Army general staff.

Authoritative reports were that congressional leaders have advised President Roosevelt they cannot win approval at this time for the necessary legislation.

Well-advised informants said Mr. Roosevelt was inclined to agree with the recommendation of General George C. Marshall, the chief of staff, that both trainees and National Guardsmen be made legally available for duty outside of the hemisphere, should the need arise.

The President nevertheless decided against seeking action for the present in view of the adverse congressional outlook. He was represented, however, as interested in several plans which would permit a certain number of trainees to be inducted into the regular army for a longer period than the present one-year term.

dies with an additional 70,000,000 barrels annually.

The fall of Egypt, Iran and Iraq would provide another 100,000,000 barrels, the director estimated. Saudi Arabia would be a prize worth 5,000,000 barrels.

"Let us even suppose that with Japanese aid, Germany gained possession of the oil reserves, refining and pipeline facilities of British India, which is the remotest possibility of all," McHugh theorized. "Also, suppose the Nazis got control of Burma and Bahrien Island. These would add 18,000,000 to 20,000,000 barrels a year to Hitler's oil stocks, which then would include all the known reserves of Europe, Asia and Africa.

"As a guess, and a very high estimate, place the manufacture of 'ersatz' petroleum in Germany and its conquered territories at 3 per cent.

"We would then allow to Hitler control of 25 per cent of the world's oil production.

"That just isn't enough oil."

military honor were being distributed at Beirut by British agents."

Dentz asked for terms on Tuesday.

As a prelude (or possbly part of the armistice) the British demanded Wednesday that Beirut, capital of Lebanon, be declared an open city and yielded without bloodshed to the allied siege forces. French sources called this an ultimatum to Dentz and said it was conveyed in elaflets dropped on Beirut by the RAF.

(A Berlin spokesman said that Vichy actually had received British terms and described them as "conditions such as would be imposed on the bitterest enemy but scarcely on a former ally for whom England still proffers concern and hope.")

French sources meanwhile said the United States had been notified through diplomatic channels about the RAF sinking of the French transport St. Didier in the Turkish harbor of Adalia.

General Dentz, the statement recalled, had sent through the United States consul general at Beirut a request to the British for an immediate suspension of hostilities.

It was this request, the French said, to which Prime Minister Churchill referred in his announcement in the house of commons yesterday, when he expressed satisfaction at seeing an end to the conflict in prospect.

ANKARA, Turkey, July 10.—(AP)—Turkish authorities announced today they had notified the commanders of six French naval vessels which arrived at Alexandretta last night from Beirut that they must leave within 24 hours or be disarmed and interned.

The flotilla included one old destroyer, four armed trawlers and one armed tug.

BERN, Switzerland, July 10.—(AP)—The Ankara radio reported tonight that eleven French naval vessels, including a 10,000-ton tanker, had arrived at the Turkish port of Alexandretta from Beirut.

(Earlier the Turkish radio was heard announcing that French warships fleeing from Syria would be interned if they entered Turkish ports.)

The commander of this flotilla was quoted as saying that other naval officers were en route.

The radio said panic had begun in Syria and that French civil servants with their families were arriving in Turkey.

VICHY, France, July 10.—(AP)—General Maxime Weygand, France's powerful commander in North Africa, arrived by plane tonight as leaders of the Vichy regime debated their next move in the Syrian conflict with Britain.

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—Ruters (British news agency) reported tonight it had heard the German-controlled Paris radio announcing that Australian troops occupied Beirut, capital of the Syrian-Lebanon mandate, this morning.

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—British forces "will naturally continue to fight in Syria "until General Henri Dentz, the French commander, accepts Britain's armistice terms, an authoritative statement declared today.

The announcement was a retort to a radio report from Lyons, France, that no reply had been received to Dentz' request for an armistice. (A Vichy statement made the same assertion).

"An immediate reply was given, stating our terms," the British source asserted.

Reuters (British news agency) reported French authorities had made no reply up to noon today to a British request that Beirut be evacuated and declared an open city pending discussion of armistice terms to end the month-old war in Syria.

As a result, it was reported, hostilities by British forces closing in on the Lebanese capital were continuing.

The request, Reuters reported in a dispatch from Jerusalem, was radioed last night to General Henri Dentz, the French commander, after the latter had signified he was ready to discuss armistice terms.

Officials were quoted as saying that Dentz must take responsibility for the consequences if his plea were rejected.

TWO NEGROES HELD SUSPECTS ENTERING BARRY RESIDENCES

Two negroes were arrested Thursday by Sheriff Cap Curington and Deputy Sheriff B. V. Hatley as suspects of the burglarizing of four residences in the Barry community Wednesday night. Some loot was recovered, Sheriff Curington reported.

Some change was taken from the trousers of R. W. Varnell. The trousers and a shirt were found abandoned in the yard.

The residence of L. O. McGraw was entered and a small amount of change was removed from McGraw's trousers. The pants were left on the back porch.

About $8 was missed from the clothing of J. W. Mitchell whose house was also entered.

Intruders weer apparently frightened away from the S. V. Derry-Nothing was missed.

MACKENZIE

Syria has as many facets of worth to the British as a diamond. If you will take the trouble to dig up your maps again you will at a glance get the significance of Syria as a war base.

See how it dominates the route which the Germans had hoped to take for an attack on Egypt and the Suez Canal from the Near East. In fact, if the British get it they will have added a mighty bulwark to their entire defense of the Eastern Mediterranean.

It is a buffer to preserve the British influence in the neighboring oil countries of Iraq to the East. One of the chief purposes of the German drive into Greece, and the subsequent attack on Crete, was to gain possession of this oil, thus at one and the same time filling the depleted Nazi tanks and cutting the British off from supplies for their fleet in the Eastern Mediterranean. You will note that one of the great pipe lines from the Mosul oil fields of Iraq runs through Syria to Tripoli, while another branch goes to Haifa.

Syria also is an indirect but powerful link in the defense against any blow from the west on India. For that reason alone Britain must have control of this Syrian key-position in the Near East. It is especially important in view of the fact that if the Nazis defeat Russia they will be in position to attack India.

MINERS

Yesterday's outbreaks, in which three costly power shovels were damaged and other equipment burned, were part of a widespread drive by mine region residents against surface stripping of coal veins. The miners contend the practice lowers property values and provides less work than the normal shaft mining.

Martin estimated 300 miners assembled along the state highway this morning at Kohler's Gap where a $75,000 power shovel was run down a mountainside last night. State police, some mounted, kept the miners on the highway shoulder.

ELECTION

Hatch act and the federal statutes limiting campaign expenditures to $25,000. Not less than $500,000 was spent in this campaign contrary to the intentions of the federal law. Government employes througout the state were written numerous letters an contacted by telephone and telegraph for the purpose of influencing their votes. As an example, a form letter sent to government employes informed them that they would not be violating the Hatch act by expressing their preference for a candidate.

"Postmasters throughout the state received postcards advising them that the President had appointed them in 1933 and 1934, asking them in effect whether or not they intended to show their loyalty to the President for their appointments. Nothing like this has ever occurred in the history of Texas and unless it is thoroughly exposed and the guilty parties punished, it will establish a precedent which in time will destroy free government.

"The state Senate committee should immediately examine the bank accounts of every candidate for senator to determine how much money the candidates had on deposit prior to their announcements for senator. Every broadcasting company, newspaper and advertisement agency should be required to file reports at once showing how much money was expended in behalf of each candidate. Hotels should be checked and a complete report showing the vast expenditures in this campaign should be made public at the earliest date. Government employes should be subpoenaed to testify what political pressure was exerted upon them to influence their votes. The political activities of all government employes should be carefully investigated and exposed."

I am urging this investigation in the interest of clean government. I do not charge or believe that I receive any more votes than announced by the Texas Election Bureau, and I am not questioning the returns so far as I am concerned. I am convinced that the CIO and fifth column organizations poured hundreds of thousands of dollars into this fight to defeat me.

Colket Reception Outstanding Event In Kerens Society

KERENS, July 8.—(Spl.)—Outstanding social event of the past week in Kerens was the reception sponsored by the city, and held on the lovely lawn of the R. P. Walker home on Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m. in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Colket of Philadelphia, Pa., who were guests of the city for the 60th anniversary and homecoming for the city, namesake of Mrs. Colket's father, the late Mr. Kerens.

The Walker gardens, which are among the loveliest, were never more beautiful, with each shrub and flower seemingly outdoing itself in honor of the occasion.

Headed by the hosts, guests were received by a number of prominent city officials and friends, and the vast number who called were made to feel welcome.

From the secluded outdoor living room, iced punch and cake suares were served from a lovely table, which featured the patriotic theme. The cover of sheer navy was trimmed with narrow white braid, and held clusters of American flags in attractive containers on either side of the huge block of ice, in which dozens of red rosebuds had been frozen, and which held the punch bowl in a cavity created in its center.

Laid in studiedly irregular patters around the punch bowl were magnolias and oleanders, the whole comprising a beautiful picture.

After meeting the honor guests and enjoying the beauty of the setting, and the hospitality of the genial host and hostess, quite a few were privileged to be guests at a lovely dinner party held for the Colkets at the administration building of the T. P. & L. plant at Trinidad.

WHEAT FARMERS IN KANSAS NOW FACING STORAGE PROBLEM

KANSAS CITY, July 10.—(AP)—Halfway through harvesting, Kansas wheat farmers face for the second time this year a threat of having to pile part of their big 1941 crop in open fields.

The first threat passed when railroads rushed a sizeable quantity of box cars from eastern defense jobs to relieve an impending shortage that had endangered the movement of grain to market.

The second developed as the Kansas City Board of Trade told farmers yesterday this city's elevators—forming the largest primary hard winter wheat terminal in the nation—could accept no more grain for storage or loan purposes except by prearrangement.

A vast percentage of the wheat shipped here and to other markets this year is storage bound. Farmers want government loans—which at Kansas City are $1.10 on No. 2 hard—and anticipate higher prices in the future.

W. R. Scott, board secretary, said 33,500,000 bushels of grain now are in storage here. And 5,140 cars ready for unloading, he said, would fill all available storage space except for bins accommodating two million bushels, absolute minimum needed for smooth handling of all grain up for sale.

Traders visualized farmers seeking space in smaller terminals and on farms, but said such facilities probably would provide only a partial solution.

Interesting Facts On First 'Robbing' Parking Meters

The "take" on Corsicana's newly installed 240 parking meters for the first three days operation amounted to $134.96 and two slugs, City Secretary J. P. Welch, annonuced today. This figure is based on the first "robbing" early Wednesday morning with the meters containing the money collected Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Welch reported that $44.51 was in pennies and $80.45 was in nickels

The amount broken down shows a little more than 56 cents per meter for the three days or slightly more than 18 cents per day for each meter. A further breakdown of the figures would indicate the meter users bought a total of 323,904 minutes parking time during the three days of operation. Those buying 24 minutes for one cent parked a total of 106,284 minutes and those buying two hours for five cents parked 217,080 minutes.

Under the contract with the manufacturing company, the meters have been installed on a six months probation basis, with the city receiving 25 per cent of the take and the company receiving 75 per cent. If at the end of six months period the city desires to buy the meters, the 75 per cent of the take collected by the company will apply on the price of the meters. The meters cost $59.50 each installed.

News of County Home Demonstration Clubs

Union High

"The minimum linen requirements for each bed are: One mattress pad, one fitted muslin mattress cover, four to six sheets, two to three slips for each pillow, and two spreads for each bed," Mrs. Dale Rowan told the Union High Club, when it met in her home Tuesday afternoon, July 8.

She further stated that good bedding is light in weight, warm and of sufficient size to cover the bed amply, the sheets being three yards long in order to tuck firmly under the mattress and allow enough to fold back over the blanket for cleanliness.

In the "timely topics," period, Mrs. Bertha Pate gave an interesting talk on "Our Responsibility as Parents Today" and there was a short discussion of current events.

Plans were completed for the ice cream supper the club is sponsoring at the school building Thursday night, also it was decided that Mrs. Mack Jones will represent the club at the A. and M. Short Course at College Station this month.

After adjournment a social hour and refreshments of cheese and pimiento sandwiches and iced lemonade were enjoyed by six members and one visitor, Miss Wanda Meredith of Coolidge.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Alfred Floyd Tuesday afternoon, July 22. Reporter.

Mildred.

"Thirteen and one-half million people depend upon cotton for a living and the wars abroad have sharply reduced the market for cotton," Mrs. A. C. Choate, president of the Mildred Home Demonstration club said in discussing the cotton problem at a meeting of the club held at the home of Mrs. Verne Montgomery recently.

"The government has stepped in and asked for another cut in cotton acreage and in return is giving cotton stamps which may be exchanged for anything made from cotton in order to increase cotton consumption and decrease the surplus" she said.

Mrs. Choate said that the stamps had been received in many counties and would be available in Navarro county soon. She explained in detail the method of exchange and said that the stamp plan was ad advantage to both farmer and merchant.

The hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Webster, served a lovely refreshment plate to 17 members and one visitor, Miss Jane Denning.

Phesant Farm Disasters.

SYLVESTER, Ga., July 10.—(AP)—Mack Park started a 500-acre phesant farm near here the first of the year.

He had hundreds of the colorful birds. Foxes came and many of the original flock went.

A hail storm killed more pheasants.

A bald eagle made a successful raid recently.

Now, turtles have found a way into the birds' watering place and destroyed fourteen more of the dwindling flock.

Does anybody want to buy a pheasant farm?

And Then!

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR PERSONALITY
By VERONICA DENGEL

"HOUSECLEANING" DIET CAUTIONS

During the Housecleaning regime which I hope to many of my readers are following this week, I want to be particularly careful about your daily eliminations. Poisons that are being thrown into the colon for elimination, excess fatty tissue that is being burned up and the waste emptied into the intestinal tract for subsequent elimination, will add an additional task to the usual habit—and even though you are accustomed to two daily eliminations—which should be the usual rule, by the way—it is wise to step up the normal by using an herbal laxative which your doctor will suggest for you. These can be obtained at your health food store. Do not use a medical type, please; the natural herbs are so much better for you—but be sure you ask your physician about this first.

Veronica Dengel

Frequently—about once a month—I use a salt flush which I make by adding three level teaspoonfuls of vegetable salt to one quart of warm water—not hot water, but just at body temperature. I use this first thing in the morning, drinking the whole quart, one glass right after another, of course on an empty stomach. Then I lie down again to keep quiet and in about an hour—sometimes less—an excellent elimination is obtained. The large amount of water flushes the colon, washing right through and removing much old debris. It has almost as good an effect as a clonic irrigation—which is similar to taking several enemas.

Internal cleansing is important at all times—but doubly so when you are trying to flush out the system. If this part of your routine is not watched then a gradual reabsorpation of the body poisons may occur and you have undone all the good you have tried to do for yourself.

So many young people who suffer bad skins can benefit from internal cleaning with diet and up-to-date eliminations. I have encountered many bad cases of acne on the lecture tour which I have just completed—and in every case almost, a history of bad diet and sluggish elimination is reported.

Once in a while nervousness can be the aggravating factor, but not often. So do check over your habits and make the necessary corrections if you wish to be well, and have a lovely figure, and a lovely skin.

Increased Budget University Texas In 1941-42 Terms

AUSTIN, July 10.—(AP)—The University of Texas and its extramural divisions will operate in 1941-42 on a $3,590,074 budget, an increase of $235,387 over the current allotment.

The board of regents approved the new budget yesterday, announcing that $2,519,880 of the total would come from a legislative appropriation and the remainder from student fees, endowment income, federal funds, gifts and other sources.

Principal expansion was intended for the graduate school, the college of fine arts and research divisions. Thirty-one new teaching positions, fourteen of them for the college of fine arts, were approved. Provision was made also for promotion of thirty-one present members o fthe faculty.

Grapecreek Ass'n. Officers Elected

NAVARRO, July 10.—(Special).—The Grapecreek Cemetery Memorial was observed Sunday, July 6, with representatives from Dallas, Mexia, Corsicana, Ira and Waco. An appropriate program was presented with County Judge Ditt McCormick as the speaker. Officers for another year include R. W. Montgomery, president; Luke Dorlen, vice president; Miss Hazel Smith, secretary-treasury; board of managers, Elmer Smith, M. Scruggs and Carl Ruth.

The same finance committee with Mrs. Elmer Smith, chairman, will serve during the year. The program committee is composed of Mrs. Nute Horn, Mrs. Jim Doolen and Mrs. Orvil Scruggs.

New Long Distance Rates Are Effective

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—A 14 per cent reduction in the nation's long-distance telephone charges went into effect today.

Reductions generally apply to distance calls between 144 and 1630 miles. Report charges on incompleted calls are eliminated, and overtime rates for person to-person calls are reduced to the overtime rates for station-to-station calls.

Corporation Court

Judge Chris L. Knox had a busy day Thursday in the Corporation Court as a result of arrests Wednesday.

Five persons appeared in answer to charges of overtime parking; one for disturbing the peace; and one for operating a truck without a tail light.

L. L. Jackson, city sanitary engineer, and R. L. Raines, state sanitary inspector, arrested one person for violation of the milk ordinance. At the request of Dallas officers Corsicana policemen took a woman off a bus here who had abandoned a three-weeks old baby in a Dallas bus station. She was lodged in the county jail pending arrival of Dallas officers to take her into custody. A white man was arrested and placed in the city jail for stealing papers from the news stand in the post office lobby operated by Elmer Pryor.

Providence Cemetery Meet

The annual Providence Cemetery Association picnic will be held at the cemetery Tuesday, July 15, according to an announcement.

MARKET DEVELOPED CHARLEY-HORSE AS RESULT OF SPRINTS

NEW YORK, July 10.—(AP)—The stock market developed a charley-horse today after its million-share sprints of the two preceding sessions.

While a number of specialties exhibited strength, and some utilities, rubbers and aircrafts gave a fairly good account of themselves, many leaders of the recent come-back to the best average price levels since January limped into lower territory.

Hesitancy appeared at the start and mildly irregular trends persisted to the close. Dealings slowed appreciably at intervals and transfers for the full proceedings were around 800,000 shares.

Further cashing of profits on the theory the recovery had been a bit too speedy, brokers said, formed the main handicap to continuance of the upswing.

Notwithstanding the spotty performance of the share division, Pepsi-Cola, White Rock, U. S. Rubber and Consolidated Aircraft posted new 1941 tops.

Supported also were Consolidated Edison, North American, Public Service of N. J., Loew's, Boeing, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Union Carbide and Sears Roebuck.

Faltering were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Johns-Manville, Standard Oil (NJ), General Electric, Westinghouse and United Aircraft.

was part of the Western Hemisphere "doesn't amount to a tinker's expletive" because "Iceland is an outpost of the United States."

If the occupation of Iceland is deefnse, Taft said, "then any act the President cares to order is defenst."

"If he can send troops to Iceland on this ground," the Ohioan added, "he can certainly send troops to Ireland on this ground. He can send them to Scotland or England. He can send them to Portugal. These countries are no farther away than Iceland, and now we have to defend our troops in Iceland."

In another development, the senate naval committe voted to summon Secretary Knox and Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, to testify tomorrow on reports that United States navy units have engaged in actual combat with German vessels.

Chairman Walsh (D-Mass) said Knox and Stark would be asked directly to confirm or deny the reports. Knox already has publicly said the navy has not been involved in sea battle.

The question of whether the Atlantic fleet got shooting orders when the occupation of Iceland began was another question intriguing the capital.

The discussion on the latest defense move in the Atlantic also included Wendell L. Willkie's advocacy of American bases in Scotland and Northern Ireland, and the disagreement on Capitol Hill over the propriety of Senator Wheeler (Dem.) of Montana, in forecasting occupation of Iceland in advance —an action criticized by Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

On the shooting question, the opinion of many legislators was that Secretary of Navy Knox had plainly implied that the Atlantic fleet had orders to open fire if necessary to deal with hostile activity along the United States communication lines at sea.

They held that was the obvious interpretation of the secretary's remarks at his press conference yesterday, even though he carefully avoided use of the word "shooting."

Knox referred specifically to the passage in Mr. Roosevelt's message to Congress on the occupation of Iceland, which read:

"I have consequently issued orders to the navy that all necessary steps be taken to insure safety of communication in the approaches between Iceland and the United States, as well as on the seas between Iceland and the United States and other strategic outposts."

The navy secretary firmly declined to place any interpretation of his own on the passage, but he did say—in reply to a question—that the language "would indicate" that the President intended the Atlantic patrol to go farther than its previous orders which merely directed patrol units to report any hostile craft sighted.

Like Knox, Willkie avoided the word "shooting" in an interview yesterday after a luncheon talk with the President. He termed it essential to keep the sea lanes to Britain open and warmly endorsed occupation of Iceland as a step in the right direction.

When asked whether he favored "shooting" to protect British ships, he said that was a trick question of the type "that the isolationists like to stir up controversy with." He declared, however, that he backed all "necessary steps" to preserve the freedom of the seas.

The subject of previous shooting reports was raised when Chairman Walsh (Dem.) of Massachusetts, announced he would ask the Senate naval committee to decide whether they warranted a formal inquiry.

Walsh called a meeting for the express purpose of voting on a resolution introduced by Senator Wheeler for an investigation of published reports that vessels in the Atlantic patrol had had brushes with German naval units.

One member of the committee, (Dem.) of Washington, expressed doubt that any inquiry would be ordered.

"In view of the statement of Secretary Knox that there has been no shooting," he said "it is not certain what will develop from the inquiry proposal."

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(AP)—Sen. James E. Murray of Montana, says he sees "no need for any (United States) invasion of Europe to beat the Germans.

"I think there is a very considerable opinion in Washington along that line. The war will be settled by air and sea power. This country can make the planes and ships out of reach of the nazis."

Wouldn't Surprise Britons.

LONDON, July 10.—(AP)—Authoritative sources disclaim knowledge on the subject but Britons generally would show scant surprise if they were informed soon that the United States is moving to acquire naval or air bases in northern Ireland.

Outside official circles there is widespread discussion of the possibility such bases are under consideration.

In this connection it is noted that the best-sheltered waters on the north coast are either within or adjoining Eire's (southern Ireland's) neutral waters.

An intimation of English expectations came in an editorial in the Evening Standard owned by Lord Beaverbrook, minister of supply, which said that "occupation of Iceland may be followed by further acquisitions."

Gayda Says 'Eventual Targets'

ROME, July 10.—(AP)—Authoritative Fascist Editor Virginio Gayda observed today that American and British troops in Iceland were "the targets for ventual legitimate attack by Germany."

Writing in the newspaper Il Giornale D'Italia he added:

"Every day American bellicosity has identified itself without equivocation as a deliberate provoker of some incident, or rather of a war between Europe and the United States."

Evidence of Co-operation.

BERLIN, July 10.—(AP)—The United States' occupation of Iceland was viewed in authorized Berlin quarters today as evidence of far-reaching British-American military cooperation in a war zone.

The impression here was said to be that the British do not intend to withdraw their forces from Iceland and that American and British soldiers there will stand together against Germany.

Reason For Static.

SAN JOSE, Cal., July 10.—(AP)—There's no need to call the radio repairman if your receiving set has developed some unusual growls recently.

The static can be blamed on sun spots and reception will soon be improved, says Dr. Albert J. Newlin, sun spot expert and director of University of Santa Clara's Richard Memorial observatory.

LIFE OF DETAINED SEAMEN IS TOUGHER AS FUNDS FROZEN

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—German and Italian sailors held in western detention camps have been finding life a bit less easy, justice department officials said today, ever since the freezing of axis funds in the United States.

Probably hardest hit are the 410 members of the crew of the scuttled German liner Columbus stationed at Fort Stanton, N. M.

They are not being detained in the same sense as the 995 Italians at Fort Missoula, Mont., or the 257 Germans at Fort Lincoln, N. D. These latter are held for eventual deportation on charges of everstaying their leave in the United States whereas the Columbus crew has the status of "distressed seamen."

The difference is that the German government pays the upkeep of the Columbus crew, while the United States must feed and house the others. Because of that, the Columbus crew has been eating the best and lots of it. The others have been living on U. S. army rations. However, the Italians at Fort Missoula had been supplementing their fare and buying sweets and tobacco with an allowance of $2 each given them weekly by the Italian steamship line.

Now all this has changed. Since the freezing of axis funds on June 14, the German embassy has ben able to provide only $3,000 for food for the Fort Stanton group. That amount has been insufficient to provide simple fare for a month, to say nothing of the more expensive cuisine of bygone days.

Retail Grocers Held Meeting Wednesday

Approximately 35 members of the Navarro County Retail Grocers association attended the meeting at the Courthouse Wednesday night.

The stamp plan was discussed and area stamp plan officials explained technical details of the program.

The grocers also will co-operate in pushing seasonal grocery sales, with peaches the first item to be thus treated.

FORT BLISS, July 10.—(AP)—George M. Tonelli, once a football player for Notre Dame, is seeing the Southwest as a member of Uncle Sam's army.

Private Tonelli, who left the fighting Irish backfield to play professional football with the Chicago Cardinals and later coached at Providence College(was one of 246 replacements to arrive here from Camp Wallace, Texas.

CEREMONIAL SUN DANCE SCHEDULED FT. HALL NEXT WEEK

FORT HALL, Idaho, July 10.—(AP)—The age-old ceremonial sun dance of the western plains Indians will be renewed next week on the Fort Hall reservation.

To the accompaniment of tomtoms and shrill eagle feather whistles, members of the Bannock and Shoshone tribes will go through the traditional three-day supplication to the sun, giver of life, for freedom from illness and famine during the coming year. To white tourists who are admitted, the grueling ceremony may look like the great-granddaddy of the marathon dance contest.

For three days the dancers will shuffle to and from a green aspen pole in the center of a willow enclosure, foregoing food and resting only at brief intervals and for prayers at sunrise and sunset.

Doug Cook Named Trinity Head Coach

ITALY, Texas, July 10.—(AP)—Doug Cook, Italy high school coach for three years has been elected coach at Trinity University.

Cook came here from Frost and trained the Italy Gladiators who attracted state-wide attention in 1940 when they scored 374 points during the season to their opponents 0.

At Trinity Cook succeeds Alva Boggs, who becomes assistant coach of St. Mary's (San Antonio).

Harvesting Small Grains Delayed By Continued Rains

AUSTIN, July 9.—(AP)—Although harvesting of small grains was delayed by continued rains in the northwest portion of the state, work was carried on without interruption in other sections last week, the U. S. Crop Reporting Service declared today.

The service said wheat was awaiting harvest in the entire Panhandle area and delay was resulting in loss but much of the oats and barley had been shocked. While wheat losses might be severe, total production still appeared to be above average.

Farmers were reported planting and replanting corn, grain sorghums, sudan, peanuts and other row crops and devoting time to cleaning fields of weeds.

Corn was maturing and harvest of green sorghum had been started in South Texas and the coastal Bend areas.

Condition of livestock, ranges and pastures continued generally excellent although heavy growth of needle grass together with stomach worms and other parasites was causing some loss among sheep and lambs particularly in the Edwards plateau region.

Former Corsicanan In Interesting Work Panama Canal Zone

Mrs. Nanerl Holloway has received interesting information from her son, Lieut. Hardy Holloway, who is stationed in Panama, concerning his work there.

Lieut. and Mrs. Holloway are stationed on Taboga Island in the Pacific, seven miles west of Panama. Lieut. Holloway is in charge of the island which has an area of ten acres. With his 150 men, he has directed the building of barracks, a power plant, ice plant, telephone system.

The front of his house faces the water-front and the back is against the mountains. He goes to the barracks daily in a canoe with a motor. Mrs. Holloway, who is one of the two white women on the island, carries a gun at all times for protection against snakes. The natives speak Spanish and there are no automobiles on the island.

A coroner's verdict of suicide was returned by Tom L. Cox.

He formerly was connected with the Farmers State Bank and had been secretary-treasurer of the credit association for seven years.

'Iron Rations' In New Form Shown To Candy Makers

ATLANTA, July 10.—(AP)—The piece de resistance of "iron rations" issued American soldiers on the march is a domino-size fudge block—a sugary hunk that packs 125 calories of energy.

The army itself concocted the recipe for the one-ounce piece of candy serving the dual purpose of packing in the food value and satisfying the fighting man's sweet tooth. Vitamin C in the form of brewer's yeast is added to the ingredients of corn sugar and cane sugar, chocolate, vegetable fat, powdered egg albumen and powdered milk.

This new item was on display in the exhibit room of three candy conventions in progress here.

The candy industry is gearing its production line to the national defense theme in two other items, said Philip C. Gott of Chicago, president of the National Confectioners Association.

One is a four-ounce high vitamin candy block for parachute troopers and the other a salty gum drop fed to soldiers in sultry sections to replace body salt lost through perspiration.

Mother, Daughter Fatally Burned In Dallas Thursday

DALLAS, July 10. (AP)—A mother and her three-year-old daughter died and five other persons were injured, one seriously, in a blaze which swept a small frame apartment building early today.

Mrs. Sidney Olian, 30, and her daughter, Gabrielle, were carried from an upper-story apartment in the four-family structure by two passersby, Howard McIntosh, 36, of Dallas, and Fred H. Higgins of Fort Worth. Th mother died shortly afterward and the child apparently was dead before she was snatched from the flames.

Another family in the structure was warned by McIntosh and Higgins in time to escape uninpured and the occupant of a third apartment reached safety after being awakened by the noise.

Mrs. Olian's 31-yar-old husband was burned slightly when he rescued another daughter Rosa, 6, from the flaming building. A son, Maurice, 7, who suffered serious burns, was carried from the building by Higgins and McIntosh. Rosa and McIntosh also suffered burns and Higgins received bad cuts on both hands in breaking down the front door of the building.

Firemen who inspected the premises theorized that the blaze might have been caused by defective wiring.

State To Distribute Twelve Million Fish

AUSTIN, July 10.—(AP)—Barring ill luck, the game department this year will raise and distribute among streams and lakes 12,000,000 fingerling fish.

State hatcheries have set their goal at 5,000,000 more fish than were raised last year, Executive Secretary Will Tucker said.

A new departure in the restocking program will be the planting of tadpoles, crayfish and minnows along with the new stock. These forms of food are being raised in large numbers in hatchery ponds.

Tucker believes the new food supply will partially offset ill effects of too long an open season, improper habitat and food scarcity in some waters.
